Subject: Alternative Procedures to EA 129-01-09 Series, for all carriers subject to this Emergency Amendment.

Number: Alternative Procedure EA 129-01-09 Series

Date: December 13, 2001

EFFECTIVE DATE: Immediately

EXPIRATION DATE: These alternative procedures will remain in effect until the Emergency Amendment (EA) 129-01-09 series is superseded, or these measures are incorporated into the Model Security Program or authorization to implement these alternative measures is canceled.

LOCATION: Switzerland

INFORMATION: The FAA has determined that the cargo security procedures required by the Swiss national cargo security program meets or exceeds those requirements listed in the EA 129-01-09 Series.

IMPLEMENTING PROCEDURES: The following procedures are acceptable in lieu of the cargo procedures listed in EA 129-01-09 series.

- A. For flights departing airports in Switzerland for the United States, air carriers may apply the provisions of the Swiss national cargo security program in lieu of the cargo security requirements contained in EA 129-01-09 Series.
- B. Each air carrier station operating in accordance with the Swiss national cargo security program must maintain a copy of the implementing procedures or the cargo security program. The program or the implementing procedures must be made available to the FAA upon request.
- C. The air carrier must inform their Principal Security Inspector of each station operating in accordance with this Alternate Procedure.
